

The Book of Isaiah: The Coming Savior & King of Israel

6:1

Acknowledgment of God's sovereign rule is the key to successful human life on every level: individually, nationally, & historically.

740-681 B.C.

Introduction: chs. 1-5

Israel's Condition and God's solution, ch. 1:

Title of book, 1:1

Israel's condition, 1:2-9

God's solution, 1:10-20

Israel's response, 1:21-31

The Problem with Israel,
chs. 2-4:

God's desire for Israel, 2:1-4

God's discipline of Israel, 2:5-4:1

God's determination for Israel, 4:2-6

The Analogy of Wild
Grapes, ch. 5.

Song of the vineyard, 5:1-7
Wildness of the grapes, 5:8-25

*The coming Destruction,
5:26-30*

Isaiah's Vision of God: ch. 6

The prophet's vision,
6:1-8

The prophet's commission, 6:9-13

Isaiah served as prophet
during the reigns of 4 kings of Judah:

Uzziah (790-739 B.C.)

Jotham (750-733 B.C.)

Ahaz (735-715 B.C.)

Hezekiah (729-686 B.C.)

Israel's Crisis of Faith, chs. 7-39:

The choice between trusting God or
Assyria, chs. 7-12

Signs of God's presence, 7:1-9:7

Measurement by God's standards, 9:8-10:4

*Hope of God's deliverance,
10:5-11:16*

God's Sovereignty over the Nations, chs. 13-35

*Divine judgments on the nations,
chs. 13-23*

*Divine victory over the nations, chs.
24-27*

*The folly of trusting the nations,
chs. 28-33*

*The consequences of Israel's trust,
chs. 34-35*

The Test of Israel's
Trust, chs. 36--39

The Assyrian threat, chs. 36-39

The Babylonian threat, chs. 38-39

Israel's Calling in the World, chs. 40-55

God's grace to Israel,
chs. 40-48

The Lord of the servant, ch.40

*The servant of the Lord,
chs. 41:1-44:22*

The Lord's redemption of His servant, chs. 44:23-47:15

The servant's attention to her Lord, ch. 48

God's atonement for Israel, chs. 49-55

Anticipation of salvation, 49:1-52:12,

*Proclamation of salvation,
52:13-53:12*

*Invitation to salvation, chs.
54-55*

Israel's Future Transformation, chs. 56-66

Recognition of human inability, chs. 56-59

*The need for humility & holiness,
chs. 56-57*

The relationship of righteousness & ritual, chs. 58-59

Revelation of future
glory, chs. 60-62

Israel among the nations, ch. 60
Israel under the Lord, chs. 61-62

Recognition of divine ability, chs. 63-66

Living in view of the future

God's faithfulness in spite of Israel's unfaithfulness, 63:1-65:16
The culmination of Israel's future, 65:17-66:24

The purpose of Isaiah is to display God's glory & holiness through His judgment of sin & his deliverance & blessing of a righteous remnant. The central themes of this book include humanity's sinfulness & God's holiness, glory, righteous judgment, divine deliverance, blessing, & commitment to Israel's remnant.

Paul R. Shockley