There are many choices that you can make when it comes to actually putting a bath and spa gift basket together. You can make your own basket or buy one that's already made. By going to a favorite or popular bath and body store, you'll get fantastic ideas that offer unique bath and spa gift baskets. Then, when you give these gifts you will surely surprise that special person and they will surely appreciate it.

Idea #1 - Be Creative, Make The Basket Yourself

Making your own bath and spa gift basket is quite easy and fun to do, and not to mention, this is the perfect way to make this gift special and memorable, especially if you are the significant other. The first thing you do is to find a really nice basket, let it be as decorative as you want. Line the basket with color tissue for a nice effect or put whatever decorative liner you want to use. Place a nice ribbon or lovely lace on it, then fill up your basket with things such as lotions, bath balls, moisturizers, bath salts, manicure sets, facial masks and a massage tool. Theme your creation such as vanilla spa gift baskets. You can even add a little charm by putting gourmet chocolates and don't forget to finish it off with a spa gift certificate! The idea here is simple, you want that person to pamper themselves with the bath and spa gifts. Now all you have to do is wrap it with clear plastic, put a nice colorful bow and present it at the right moment.

Idea #2 - Not Enough Time? You Can Always Buy A Gift Basket

If you don't have enough time to create your own then buying spa gift baskets sets is the easiest way. There are a couple ways to accomplish this. First, browse the internet to get some ideas on how to make up your gift basket, then make a list. This will also give you an idea on how much you would like to spend. Second, go to your favorite or popular bath and body store. If you're not sure where to go, ask your friends or look up a store in the yellow pages. At the store you can have one of the sales people show you the different products to help you create your bath and spa gift baskets. While browsing around in the store you will be able to see, touch and smell the many wonderful products. To put the final touch in your gift basket you will need to get a spa certificate and by going to a day spa you can choose different packages of spas available.

When you are ready to give your bath spa gift basket to that special person, they will be totally surprised and will be sure to enjoy it. If that person just happens to be your significant other perhaps you can put a few extra items in your basket to really make it a surprise, I am sure the magic will happen. As you can see there are many terrific ideas in offering a bath and spa gift basket and whether you create your own or buy a ready made basket there will always be some special surprise in the end.
