From simple spa care packages to elaborate tote bags filled with anti-stress spa products, there are plenty of ways to show you care with a unique collection of bath and body care products.

Spa gift baskets can range from simple boxes of lotions and body scrubs, to larger collections of pampering products and decadent treats. Bath salts, relaxing scrubs, lotions, and aromatherapy oils are wonderful ways to help reduce stress in anyone's life, and bath and body gift baskets are perfect for both men and women with hectic lifestyles, or for those that simply need a special treat!

Spa gift baskets can also work well as a birthday surprise or housewarming gift. Consider how valuable a de-stress package will be for somebody who has just gone through the process of moving into a new home; aromatherapy candles, bath salts, and other relaxing products could be just what they need to get settled in. Spa gift baskets can also work well for an expectant mother at a baby shower; soothing lotions, aromatic body scrubs, and premium candles can also help them relax and enjoy their pregnancy with ease. Teachers, college students, and even bosses can all benefit from a little relaxation anytime of year; bath and body gift baskets are a simple way to extend a token of appreciation and send a memorable gift.

If someone special in your life needs some pampering and extra care, consider sending them a refreshing spa gift hamper or 'spoil me' tote bag! These specialty spa gift baskets are filled with quality products including enriching body butter, relaxation CDs, soothing bath milk, and even gourmet chocolates. Chocolates and truffles are decadent additions to any gift, and work especially well in spa gift baskets for that extra special touch.

Luxurious spa gift baskets are also designed for that special someone who needs a little lift; wellness products in these assortments include fragrance oils and premium products such as pearls and rubies. For anyone that needs a temporary escape from stress or difficult times in their lives, bath and body gift baskets filled with a wooden brush or massager, relaxing oils, and soothing music could be just what they need to detach, relax, and revitalize.

Anyone can indulge in a heavenly spa retreat, and you can make it possible from the comfort of their home with a variety of spa gift baskets available. Bath and body gift baskets are especially comforting for those that are going through a difficult time and may need a special pampering session.
